NHDOT TO PARTICIPATE IN THIRD PUBLIC SESSION ON ONE-WAY TOLLS
INVITED TO HAMPTON SELECTMEN'S MEETING ON MONDAY, APRIL 19

The New Hampshire Department of Transportation will be represented at the Monday, April 19 public meeting of the Hampton Selectmen to review the 2003 One-Way Toll Report and to discuss the proposed implementation of temporary one-way tolls at the I-95 Hampton Toll Plaza for the 2004 summer tourism season.

The NHDOT held Public Informational Meetings on the one-way toll experiment on April 7 in Hampton Falls and April 8 in Portsmouth, and was invited to attend the April 19 Hampton Selectmen's meeting.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend the April 19 Selectmen's meeting, which will be held at the Hampton Town Hall Selectmen's Room, 100 Winnacunnet Road in Hampton, New Hampshire. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 6:30 PM.
